

House Joint Resolution 2001 - Introduced

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 2001
BY WILLS

1 A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution
2 of the State of Iowa relating to term limits for members of 3 the general assembly.
4 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF IOWA:

1 Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of 2 the State of Iowa is proposed:

3 1. Section 3 of Article III of the Constitution of the State
4 of Iowa is repealed and the following adopted in lieu thereof:

5 Representatives. SEC. 3. The members of the house of 6 representatives shall be chosen every second year, by the 7 qualified electors of their respective districts, and their 8 term of office shall commence on the first day of January next 9 after their election, and continue two years, and until their 10 successors are elected and qualified. No person who has, or 11 but for resignation would have, served eight consecutive terms
12 shall be elected as a representative for the succeeding term.
13 If a person is elected to serve a portion of a term to which 14 some other person was elected but that person died in office
15 or resigned from office or was otherwise removed from office, 16 that portion of a term served shall not be included in the 17 consecutive terms of service for purposes of this limitation.
18 The limitation on consecutive terms of service shall only apply
19 to terms of office beginning on or after January 1, 2035.

20 2. Section 5 of Article III of the Constitution of the State
21 of Iowa is repealed and the following adopted in lieu thereof:

22 Senators — qualifications. SEC. 5. Senators shall be 23 chosen for the term of four years, at the same time and place as 24 representatives; they shall be twenty-five years of age, and 25 possess the qualifications of representatives as to residence
26 and citizenship. No person who has, or but for resignation 27 would have, served four consecutive terms shall be elected as 28 a senator for the succeeding term. If a person is elected 29 to serve a portion of a term to which some other person was 30 elected but that person died in office or resigned from 31 office or was otherwise removed from office, that portion of 32 a term served shall not be included in the consecutive terms
33 of service for purposes of this limitation. The limitation 34 on consecutive terms of service shall only apply to terms of 35 office beginning on or after January 1, 2035.

1 Sec. 2. REFERRAL AND PUBLICATION. The foregoing amendment
2 to the Constitution of the State of Iowa is referred to the 3 general assembly to be chosen at the next general election
4 for members of the general assembly, and the secretary of 5 state is directed to cause the same to be published for three 6 consecutive months previous to the date of that election as 7 provided by law.

EXPLANATION

9 The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with 10 the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

11 This joint resolution proposes an amendment to the 12 Constitution of the State of Iowa relating to terms of service
13 for persons elected to the offices of representative or senator
14 in the general assembly. The proposed amendment provides that 15 any person elected as a representative shall be eligible to 16 serve eight consecutive terms in that position but shall not 17 be eligible to serve a ninth consecutive term. The amendment
18 provides that any person elected as a senator shall be eligible
19 to serve four consecutive terms in that position but shall not 20 be eligible to serve a fifth consecutive term. The amendment
21 therefore limits the offices of representatives and senators
22 to 16 consecutive years of service in a particular chamber
23 of the general assembly. The amendment provides that a 24 resignation from office would not serve to break the counting
25 of consecutive terms for the person resigning but would not be 26 counted as a term of office for the person filling the vacancy.
27 The limitation on consecutive terms of service shall commence
28 with terms of office beginning on or after January 1, 2035.
29 The resolution, if adopted, would be referred to the next 30 general assembly for adoption before being submitted to the 31 electorate for ratification.
